From The Chair
By Jim S. Fleming

Hello, fellow peakbaggers! Spring has sprung, the grass has risen, I wonder where the summit is??!! In our prime season for peak climbing, there are many great places to go and things to ascend (see the outings listed in this issue). By the time you read this, we will have had a successful Spring Fling at Foster Lodge in the Laguna Mountains of San Diego County. Many beautiful trails grace the Cuyamaca, Laguna, and other ranges—we have a number of wonderful outings to these peaks. Look for trip reports and pictures in our next issue. We also will have done an exploratory to Mt. McDill, a former HPS peak that may be proposed for re-addition to the List. And, coming up this July 25th, our annual Waterman Rendezvous with numerous choices for routes will once again entice the throngs of partygoers (last year, we had about 100 people, so it has become revived and a great success once more!). Mark your calendars also for the annual HPS business meeting on Tuesday, September 8th. We will hold this event at Newcomb’s Ranch on Angeles Crest (Hwy. 2), giving folks the opportunity to hike and enjoy our fantastic peaks before the meeting. Section members will have the opportunity to propose additions and depletions of peaks to the List, and so it is most important to attend, if possible! Let your voice be heard! Our annual Fall Festival event is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, October 3rd and 4th, in Los Padres National Forest. This year, we are looking at a campground in Fort Tejon State Historical Park, near Frazier Park. We’ll have plenty of great places to hike in the area—outings have already been planned.

On another note, I would like to gratefully acknowledge the recent donation of David and Suzanne Michaels for $100 in honor of Peter and Ignacia Doggetti’s completion in leading all of the peaks on the List. As with many of us, they appreciate the friendship and leadership on so many outings for our Section. We could not be the great climbing section were it not for people like the Doggetts and the Michaels! THANKS for your tremendous support! And many thanks to all who serve as leaders of outings—we have a great crew!

Hope to see you all on the trail soon—Happy Trails!

Whale Peak
Nay to the Naysayers
February 7, 2009
Leaders: Ted Lubeshkoff, Patrick Vaughn
By: Ted Lubeshkoff

After people found out that there was a 70% chance of rain in the Whale Peak area, I had participants emailing and calling to cancel for my trip on Saturday, February 7th. Where was their calcified HPS will and determination? Even one of my co-leaders, Wayne Bannister cancelled, mumbling something about him “coming down with something.” Likely story. So, Pat Vaughn, Bruce Craig, Gary Bowman, Amin Faraday (from San Diego), and myself decided to go to the trailhead anyway. If it was raining at the trailhead, we would cancel. We started hiking at 9:30 a.m. with no rain. What did the 70% chance of rain amount to? About one hour of light drizzle and dry snow flurries. Then, intermittent clouds and sun. We were on the peak at 1:30 p.m. and back to the car at 4:30 p.m., 7 hours just like the peak guide said. Throughout the day I heard our group describe the day, and the views, as spectacular, magnificent, glorious, special, not to be missed. Hiking through the desert with snow flurries was an incredible adventure. I am glad that I listened to my intuition and drove to the trailhead before canceling and I am grateful that everyone who went trusted my judgment. It was a very special day, indeed.

About Bleu, the Cat
By Bleu (aka Fuzz Fuzz)

Little did I know as a young Birman lad from Salon de Provence, France that I would one day aspire to the esteemed position of an HPS Peak Bagger. Without further ado, here’s my story:

It all began one chilly weekend in December of 2006. After two days of massages and fancy dinners in Idyllwild, I headed back down the mountain with mom, dad, grandma and grandpa. We decided to take a side trip to Rouse Hill and Thomas Mountain. They all thought I was man enough to ascend both peaks in one day. Little did they know what a struggle it was for me to get to the top, but I would do anything to make my grandma proud.

I would have to say that this was the beginning of my obsession. Being a part of the Burnside clan has truly inspired me. Next hike on my list (anything less than a 2-mile trek and preferably a drive-up) was Hunter Mountain in Death Valley. We camped at over 10,000 feet, just outside of Coyote Flats in the Sierra Nevada mountains and then headed to Death Valley for a couple nights. The purpose of the trip was to climb Hunter Mountain, which proved to be a treacherous 2 mile hike through rocks and brush. I cannot explain the overwhelming sense of pride when my paw touched the benchmark indicating the summit and NPS Boundary mark. This experience made me realize my calling to become a part of any search and rescue team.

By popular demand, I was summoned to do another trip to Rouse Hill, but this time via a pathfinder route up the East Ridge. Followed by my mom, dad, grandma and grandpa, I was excitedly greeted at the top by Laura Joseph, George Wysup, and Ginny Herringer. I quite enjoyed the catnip and kitty cat cookies waiting for me.

As for now, I am working towards my hundred peaks emblem. Two down, 98 to go.

Looks like I’ll see you on the trail. Don’t be surprised if you see a white, fluffy thing pass you up on the next hike.

My next adventure will be on April 5th, 2009 to Carey’s Castle in Joshua Tree National Park.

Two New Wilderness Areas in the San Gabriel Mountains
By Winnette Butler, Conservation Chair

By now you have probably already heard the good news, but for those who haven’t, on March 25th The Omnibus Public Lands Management Act passed in the House of Representatives. It had already been approved by the Senate on March 19th. This is the largest wilderness protection act to be passed by Congress in more than fifteen years. Among other things, this bill will:

✓ Designate 700,000 more acres of wilderness in California.
✓ Create two new wilderness areas in the San Gabriel Mountains – Pleasant View Ridge (26,700 acres around Mt. Williamson, Cooper Canyon and Buckhorn Campground) and Magic Mountain (12,300 acres about ten miles east of Santa Clarita).
✓ Create more than 1,000 miles of wild and scenic rivers and four new national trails.
✓ Codify the vast National Landscape Conservation System.
✓ Enlarge the boundaries of more than a dozen existing national park units.
✓ Establish 10 national heritage areas.

Thanks to all of you who participated in the many hikes to these areas to learn about the proposed Wilderness Areas and sent your many letters of support for this bill. Please keep up the good work. There is still much more to be done.

TIME TO START ENCOURAGING LEADERS TO RENEW FIRST AID.
Karen provided a list of those leaders with 18 names needing First Aid and 8 names needing OLTT101 (report dated December 09, 2008). Mountain Records: Jim Fleming moved we unsuspend Modjeska. M/S/P Jim Fleming moved mat we suspend Bailey as there is no peak guide available at this time and the new summit is different from the one on map (the summit labeled Bailey on the Silverwood Lake USGS map isn't the 589' summit), asking the question as to how hikers and leaders are to correctly bag this peak before a peak guide is provided M/S/P. Jim Fleming stated Sunset Peak is the site proposed in lieu of South Mt. Hawkins to rebuild a LO. Joe Sung suggested we publish the updated peak list in the first issue of the LO for 2009. The following peaks were removed from the list:
01G Pilot Knob
32K Cuyapaupe
01E Cannel Point
19A Cleghorn

19C Sugarpine
19D Monuments

Palomar was NOT removed and its summit was not moved.
