0452-Angeles Chp Hundred Peaks Outing

CANCELLED RESCHEDULED TO APR 18 - 19 - I: Pahrump Point (5,740'), Stewart Point (5,265')

Mat Kelliher 818-667-2490 mkelliher746@gmail.com

Bill Simpson 323-683-0959 simphome@yahoo.com

I: Pahrump Point (5,740'), Stewart Point (5,265') - Start out the New Year with a fun weekend of rocky peakbagging near Death Valley NP high above the Chicago Valley north-northeast of Shoshone, CA. We'll move at a slow pace each day; however, each peak will require a strenuous effort, and although the routes will be restricted to Class 2 scrambling, comfort on steep and loose, rocky and thorny cross-country terrain is required. Saturday morning we'll get an early start and head into the "Nopah Range" Wilderness Area located along the eastern range bordering Chicago Valley; first we'll warm up by trudging across a broad alluvial fan, then we'll make our way up through a sometimes tight and rocky canyon before getting up onto a steep and loose, rocky and thorny ridgeline that will bring us up onto the narrow and rocky summit ridge, which we'll ascend to the summit of Pahrump Point. After thoroughly enjoying the reportedly exquisite views up there, we'll return the way we came in for a day's total of 8 RT mi with 3,400' gain. We'll make camp where we're parked and will celebrate the weekend under a nearly full moon sky with a traditional DPS Potluck Happy Hour. Sunday we'll head over to the nearby "Resting Spring Range" Wilderness Area located along the western range bordering Chicago Valley, and will once again venture out across the alluvium, up into a tight and rocky canyon before ascending steep and loose, rocky ridgelines to the summit of Stewart Point. We'll return the way we came for a day's total of 6.5 RT miles with 2,600' of gain. Feel free to join us for one or both days. This is a DPS Outing co-sponsored by HPS. Email Mat Kelliher at mkelliher746@gmail.com with contact and carpool info, recent conditioning, and experience for trip status and details. Leaders: MAT KELLIHER, BILL SIMPSON

O: Sawtooth Mtn (5200'), Burnt Pk (5788'), Liebre Mtn (5760'): Transition and change typify the geology and history of these mountains. Geology: a desert to forest transition zone, they are bounded to the north by the San Andreas fault. History: Sawtooth Mountain was named Liebre Peak until its original name was transferred to another summit. Burnt Peak was first called Sawmill Mountain; then, the name changed following a major fire. But these peaks didn't just change names. The point for Liebre Mountain (name stems from 1800's area names referencing liebre, Spanish for hare) flip-flopped from 5760+ to 5791', and then back to the original point. Sawtooth is 7 miles rt and 2000' gain; Burnt is 6 mi rt and 800'. Join us for a hike to one or both peaks; then, top it off with a ride to Liebre, its great panoramic views making for a worthwhile drive. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. O: Temescal Peak (2,126') - Hey you HPSers, hike a lower Peak while the hills are green and the flowers are showing off their colors. Start off in Santa Ynez Canyon, an amazingly beautiful, cool riparian woodland shaded by oaks and Sycamores. Hike through Topanga State Park and enjoy the views from Eagle Rock before passing the HUB and ascending Temescal Peak. Return to cars on a loop route. 10 miles, 1,800 gain. Enjoy a relaxing day with old friends and then consider joining the Lower Peaks General Meeting (LYFE Restaurant in Culver City) and get more involved in this Committee that offers new peak bagging opportunities for you. Meet at trailhead. From PCH in Pacific Palisades, turn right on Sunset. After driving about 0.5 miles, turn left on Palisades Drive, continue for 2.4 miles, turn left on Vereda De La Montura. Proceed for 0.2 miles to the end, where there is a gated community. The signed trailhead is on the right side. Park on the street. This is an LPC Outing co-sponsored by HPS. Contact leader Marlen with questions. Hard rain cancels. Call or email leaders, if you have questions.

I: Rattlesnake Peak (5826'): Join us for an adventure via a unique route, an approach not possible for about half a century. In early 2013, we tackled the west side of Fang and discovered that the hot shots fighting the 2012 Williams fire had cleared, by hand, the length of the previously impenetrable crest. A second and bigger discovery (it was not visible from the road below) was the best flower display we had seen in the San Gabriels: purple painted slopes of giant Canterbury Bells and a treasure of bright yellow poppies and various flowers and colors. This weekend's hike may not be as fortuitous as that April, but the high spirit and exhilaration of exploring and venturing up the route-less-traveled remain. Setting up a car shuttle and descending via route 1, we will total 10.5 miles and 4600' gain for the day. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. CANCELED: I: "Cactus to Clouds" San Jacinto Peak (10,804'): Join us for the classic "Cactus to Clouds," an "extreme" hike that can convey bragging rights (assuming you are able to survive)! According to Wikipedia, the Cactus to Clouds Trail from Palm Springs, California, to San Jacinto Peak is a hiking trail with the greatest elevation gain of any trail in the United States. We will begin early Sunday morning from downtown Palm Springs, and we'll climb past cacti, cholla, ferns and pines. The views are phenomenal. We'll return to the desert floor via a ride on the rotating Palm Springs Aerial Tramway. At about 11,000' gain and around 22 miles of total distance, this strenuous day hike is only for the fit and experienced hiker. Please bring $$ for tram as well as lugsoles, layers, beverages, lunch, snacks, sunblock and hat. For trip details contact Leader: BILL SIMPSON Co-Leaders: JIMMY QUAN

Added to the HPS list in 1999, both peaks were named in recognition of the extensive leadership and service of two men. John Backus was a highly accomplished physicist, musician, and climber who conceived and realized the idea of leading the entire HPS list. Bill T Russell was a supreme leader, navigator, instructor, and climber -- a Triple list finisher (HPS, DPS and SPS). I: Sewart Mtn (6841'), Snowy Peak (6532'), Black Mtn #2 (6202'), McDonald Peak (6870') and Alamo Mtn (7360') - Join us for one day or two days of the Cobblestone Complex Cleanout. Day ONE, visit three, four, or all five peaks, as this day is divided into three segments with driving in between. After the first segment's 3 peaks, and views of the deep and wild canyons of Black #2, we'll drive over to climb the short but pretty ridge to McDonald and spectacular views of the grand expanse of the Topatopa Mountains. End your day's adventures with an easy amble through the woods to Alamo, Spanish for poplar trees found in the area. Totals for the first three peaks will be about 10 miles rt with 3900' of gain. The 4th peak is about 1 mile rt with 400' of gain. The 5th peak is about 2 miles rt with 450' of gain. One can opt to camp or carcamp if staying for Day 2. High clearance vehicles advised. I: Throop Pk (9138'), Mount Burnham (8997'), Mt Baden-Powell (9399'), Ross Mtn (7402'): This challenging hike starts with the well-defined Boy Scout trail; meets and follows the pretty PCT trail as we gain the first, second and third peak on our way to our ultimate destination, a use trail descent to Ross Mountain. We are rewarded with spectacular views of stout summits that rise from stalwart ridges extending in all directions, the steep wild canyons that split them, and the rivers and streams that cut those canyons -- Mine Gulch southeast of Baden-Powell; Prairie Fork southwest of Blue Ridge; Copter Ridge descending eastward accompanying Iron Fork to the San Gabriel River; and San Antonio Ridge, while traveling from Baldy to Big Iron, ushering Fish Fork towards the Narrows. More adventure follows as we turn our gaze to the daunting 2000' ascent to regain Baden-Powell. Totals for this four peak venture are 14 miles rt with 4620' gain. Hike a very fun rock scrambling peak and celebrate with the Santa Barbara locals at their annual Summer Solstice parade and festivities. Cathedral Peak, on the Lower Peaks list, (6 miles R/T and 2,300' gain) is a strenuous boulder climb, but on route it is fun and does not require a rope or technical skills. The path is discernible, but does necessitate some route-finding. The views on a clear day are remarkable We will start the hike at 3 pm so we are hiking in the cooler hours of the day. This will allow us to spend the early afternoon at the fun SB Solstice parade which begins at noon. Stay over Sunday and hike Little Pine. Contact Marlen at mbmertz@aol.com for details about meeting. Participants going on Sunday's hike can stay with leaders in Rancho Oso private resort in a cabin or Covered Wagon (showers included) or in the public Upper Oso campground. Mt Pinos is the high point of Ventura County and center of the world for the indigenous Chumash. Sawmill Mtn, high point of the Chumash Wilderness and possible high point of Kern County, presents excellent views of the San Andreas Fault as it travels northwest towards the Carrizo Plain. Grouse Mtn, deeper in the Chumash Wilderness and HPS's first 100th peak (June 30, 1946), proffers the sense of solitude that remote hiking can inspire. I: Mount Gould (13,005'), Mount Rixford (12,887') – Join us for this strenuous day hike at a moderate pace to a couple of fine SPS peaks on the other side of the gorgeous Kearsarge Pass near Independence, CA. We'll start out on trail and make our way up and along a series of jewel-like lakes as we ascend through the John Muir Wilderness up to Kearsarge Pass (11,845'). Once at the Pass we'll head due north, straight up the steep talus-choked slopes of Mt Gould to its summit, where we'll enjoy spectacular views in all directions. From here we'll travel west into the Sequoia & Kings Canyon Wilderness along the wildly rugged and extremely scenic ridgeline connecting Mt Gould and Mt Rixford. Be prepared for some truly amazing views!! From the summit of Rixford we'll return the way we came in for a day's total of about 13 RT miles and about 5,000' of gain, 650' of which we'll get on our return. O: Tecuya Mountain (7,155'), Frazier Mountain (8,013') - It's been a long, hot, hard summer of peakbagging, and we're looking to close it out up in the Los Padres National Forest climbing a couple of peaks that are decadently easy to get up on top of. We'll start off by heading up into the San Emigdio Mtns to travel along an old fire road for about ¾ mi (500' gain) to the summit of Tecuya Mtn, whose name derives from 'Tokya', the name applied by the Yokut native peoples to the Chumash People who once lived in the region. We'll return to our cars the same way we came in for an easy day's total of 1.5 RT miles with 500' gain. Back at our cars we'll drive over to the summit of the Frazier Mtn fire lookout, and enjoy the views out into all that gorgeous Chumash country surrounding us up there. Easy? You bet! Fun? Virtually guaranteed!! Well behaved dogs are welcome. I: Cerro Noroeste (8,280+'), Grouse Mountain (8,650+'), Sawmill Mountain (8,818'), Mount Pinos (8,831') - Join us on this first day of the HPS Fall Festival as we travel along this gorgeous ridge in the Los Padres National Forest near Frazier Park, CA. After first starting out with a quick drive up to claim an ascent of Cerro Noroeste, we'll drive the short distance to the trailhead and park. From here we'll travel east on rough trail; first over to Puerto Del Suelo ("Door to the Floor"), then up to Mt Pinos's ridgeline, heading off-trail where appropriate to ascend first Grouse Mtn, then Sawmill Mtn's West Pk (7,749'), then Sawmill Mtn (8,818'), and then Mt Pinos. At Mt Pinos we'll turn around and retrace our on trail steps back to our cars at the trailhead. Expect a moderate 10.5 miles and 3,000 feet of gain (2,000' going in, 1,000' coming back out) for the roundtrip; done at a pace easy enough to allow us to enjoy the scenery around us, but purposefully enough to allow us to get back to McGill Campground in time for the HPS Fall Festival!! The Angeles Chapter is pleased to announce its 2015 Veterans Day event! Veterans, military members and their families, friends and supporters are invited to join us for a special day in the local mountains to 1) honor current and former military service members, 2) learn about the Angeles Chapter's current efforts to increase opportunities for service members, veterans and their families, friends and supporters to enjoy the great outdoors, and all the other outings and activities of the Angeles Chapter and 3) ENJOY A HIKE IN THE MOUNTAINS! We will have various hiking options available, depending on the size and conditioning level of the group, which may include some or all of the following: --O: San Antonio Falls (1.5 miles round trip mostly on road; 250' gain) --O: Baldy Notch (7 miles round trip on very good road; 1700' gain) --O: San Antonio Ski Hut via Ski Hut Trail (6.8 miles round trip on road and trail; 2000' gain) --O: Mt. Baldy via Ski Hut Trail (9.6 miles round trip on road and trail; 4000' gain) --I: Mt. Baldy and Mt. Harwood via "register ridge" (a steep use trail) and Devils Backbone Trail (10 miles round trip; 4200' gain) We will meet, and all hikes will begin, at the Manker Flat trailhead at the intersection of Mt. Baldy Road & San Antonio Falls Road, just past the Manker Flat campground, at 8am. Please bring 1-2 liters of water & snacks/lunch and wear hiking boots or other sturdy shoes. Service dogs are welcome, but no other (non-service) dogs, please. This event is FREE but an Adventure Pass ($5) is required for parking. This Angeles Chapter Outing is co-sponsored by the

Hundred Peaks Section. Please note that a Sierra Club liability waiver will be required for all participants. A copy of the waiver may be viewed in advance here:
<http://angeles.sierraclub.org/sites/angeles.sierraclub.org/files/docs/SignInWaiver.pdf>. Please contact Bill Simpson (simphome@yahoo.com) or Melody Anderson (melodygrace1@gmail.com) to RSVP and with any questions.

O: Gold Mountain (8,235'), Bertha Peak (8,201') - Join us for a nice autumn day on the north side of Big Bear Lake in pursuit of a couple gorgeous HPS peaks. We'll start out hiking up the jeep road near the western shore of the mostly dry Baldwin Lake at a slow and easy pace to the summit of Gold Mtn where we'll enjoy the view, take a few photos and then head back to our cars via the same road we came up for a total of 4.0 RT miles with about 900' of gain. From here we'll drive over to the nearby trailhead for Bertha Peak, park the cars, and head up road, trail, and use trail at a pace easy enough to smell the flowers and enjoy the view on our way to the summit. And do be prepared for some truly spectacular views of Big Bear Lake and the San Gorgonio massif to our south as we travel along the PCT enroute to our peak! After enjoying the views up top and pondering the meaning of the numbers "100" and "54", we'll head back down to our cars for a total of 3.75 RT miles and 900' of gain. Well behaved dogs are welcome. This is an HPS Outing co-sponsored by WTC. Email contact info, recent experience, conditioning, and if you're bringing one along, your dog's name and breed to mkelliher746@gmail.com for trip status and details. I: Kingston Peak (7,335'), Brown Peak (4,947') - Join us for a fun weekend of desert peak bagging way out near the Nevada border in eastern California. Both peaks require a strenuous effort, which we'll exert at a moderate pace, and require comfort on rocky, thorny, steep, and loose class 2 desert terrain. We'll start out on Saturday in the Kingston Range Wilderness Area where we'll ascend to the high point of the Kingston Range via the Northern Ridge route, climbing up through its Pinyon, Juniper, and White Fir forested upper slopes on our way to commanding views in all directions from the summit. From the high point we'll return to our cars to enjoy a festive and traditional DPS Happy Hour Potluck around a roaring fire, and camp out for the night where we're parked. Totals for the day will be about 8 miles RT with 2,850' of gain going in, 750' coming back out. Sunday we'll break camp, drive north up into Death Valley National Park, and ascend Brown Peak via its western slopes, where we'll work our way up through alternating layers of chocolate and vanilla colored rock and then ascend a fun class 2 rib on our way to spectacular views up on the summit. We'll return the way we came in for a day's total of about 6.5 RT miles with 2,000' of gain. Feel free to join us for one or both days. This is a DPS Outing co-sponsored by HPS. We'll start out by heading up an old road and trail at an easy pace for about 5.0 RT miles (900' gain) to the summit of Lost Horse Mtn. We'll return to our cars the way we came in and then drive over to Keyes View and the trailhead to Mt Inspiration. From the parking lot we'll head up a ridge on use trail at a relaxed pace, going up and down a couple of false summits before reaching the summit of Mt Inspiration where we'll marvel at the views of the Salton Sea, San Jacinto, and San Gorgonio from its airy top. Returning the way we came, we'll cover 2.0 RT miles while gaining about 700'. Email contact info, recent experience & conditioning to mkelliher746@gmail.com for trip status and details. O: Meeks Mtn (6277'), Bighorn Mtns (5894') - Experience the sense of exploration as we venture into this seemingly inaccessible and wild remote area. Shouldered by the grand San Bernardino Mountains on one side, and the vast high desert on the other, this was once the realm of large bands of mountain sheep and home to one S.H. Meek, a locally famous 1880's desperado. Two separate hikes, the hike to Meeks is 4 miles rt and 1000' gain; Bighorn Mtns is 6 miles rt and 1100' gain. Group size will be limited by the availability of 4-wheel drive vehicles. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. Contact peterdoggett@aol.com for trip details. O: Mount Lowe from Rubio Canyon, Mount Lowe railroad, Echo Mountain, Muir Peak and Lone Tree Trail - Join us for an invigorating jaunt through less traveled trails and locations steeped in history to climb a well loved peak in the front range of the Angeles. Starting in Altadena from Rubio Canyon we will follow the path of the old Mount Lowe incline railroad on steep trail up to Echo Mountain to the historic ruins there. We will continue on via Castle Canyon to Inspiration Point and Mount Lowe trail camp, site of the old Mount Lowe Tavern, then on to Mount Lowe. We will return via Muir Peak and the Lone Tree Trail, a popular hiking route in the 1920s which was abandoned and recently rebuilt. This is a strenuous but moderately paced outing for experienced hikers, with a total of 12 miles and 4500 feet of gain. Bring lugsoles layers lunch and liquids. Tasty treats provided. Contact leaders for meeting time and location. Rain or recent flooding cancels.

I: Orocochia Mountains HP (3,815'), Black Butte (4,504') – Join us for a late autumn weekend out in Riverside County, south and east of Joshua Tree National Park. Both peaks require a strenuous effort, which we'll exert at a moderate pace, and will require comfort on rocky, thorny, steep, and loose class 2 desert terrain. Saturday we'll head up the north slopes of the Orocochia Mtns via DPS Route A to their high point and enjoy fantastic views of the Salton Sea and Santa Rosa Mountains from the summit before heading back down to our cars via the route we came in on for a day's total of about 5.5 miles and 1,300' of gain. Saturday night we'll camp out where we're parked and will enjoy a festive Happy Hour and Potluck under star-packed, new moon night skies. Sunday we'll head a little further east to ascend Black Butte from the south following DPS Route A; expect about 6.5 miles and 1,800' of gain. Feel free to join us for one or both days. High clearance vehicles recommended. This is a DPS Outing co-sponsored by HPS. Email Mat Kelliher at mkelliher746@gmail.com with contact and carpool info, recent conditioning, and experience for trip status and details. Leaders: MAT KELLIHER, BILL SIMPSON

John L. Kieffer 714-522-1376 jockorock42@yahoo.com

After 5 years Matthew Hengst is finishing the Desert Peak Section List and we're going to do it in suitable style. We'll meet Saturday sunset at the trailhead for Nelson Range HP, strap on our headlamps, and deck ourselves out in as much glow in the dark or light emitting gear as we can carry. We'll summit in the dark and proceed to have a celebration bright enough to be visible for miles before returning to camp and continuing the party fireside with glow in the dark libations. Total stats are 2 miles and 1200 ft gain so appropriate for all levels of fashion challenged bipeds. Garishly colored jeeps optional though a high clearance vehicle will be needed to reach the trailhead. Sponsored by DPS, Co-sponsored by WTC and HPS
